

IMAGE # ONE

Legend for Image # One:

A 24 y.o. patient, presenting with a previous history of unsuccessful dental treatment under local anesthesia, is well-managed under the influence of 0.375mg oral triazolam and 40% nitrous oxide-oxygen inhalation analgesia. A properly positioned Dynamap© pulse oximeter with integrated blood pressure cuff and SpO<sub>2</sub> sensor is a mandatory operatory addition.